Elevations Credit Union Gives In-Kind Support to Local Nonprofit This Holiday Season

With Colorado Gives Day just around the corner, Community Food Share receives a well-deserved donation

Boulder, CO– November 29, 2017 — In honor of Colorado Gives Day 2017 and the holiday season, Elevations Credit Union is proud to announce their donation of in-kind support to the local organization, Community Food Share. The nonprofit’s mission is to be a leader in the effort to end hunger in Boulder and Broomfield Counties. As the season of giving continues, Elevations Credit Union is thrilled to provide the local group with vital office furniture to keep their operation streamlined and functional.

Just this month, Elevations Credit Union has delivered a large boardroom table with chairs and credenza, a dozen complete desk sets, three chairs, and seven essential cubicles. In the words of Community Food Share Director of Communications, Julia McGee, “Most importantly, this gift directly supports our mission, because every dollar we save on operational and administrative expenses is another three meals distributed into the community. But it feels especially good to receive something that benefits our team as well. The high-quality furniture has upgraded the look and feel of our office environment. It may seem like a simple thing, but to us, it’s a wonderful sign of appreciation and encouragement for the work we do.”

With 2017 coming to a rapid close, Elevations Credit Union feels this is an ideal way to finish the year while supporting their neighbors in celebration of Colorado Gives Day. It is their hope that this act of kindness will better the lives of so many within their community.

“By providing these physical assets to the organization, we ensure that there will be a trickle down effect to those struggling with hunger this holiday season. This in-kind donation will provide Community Food Share with the necessary tools they need to feed a wider range of individuals and families. We are proud to be a part of the Colorado Gives Day movement, celebrating an increase of philanthropy across Colorado,” states Dennis Paul, Elevations VP of Business Development.
