Gerry Agnes, Elevations' President/CEO, Named to CUAC Board of Directors

Boulder, CO — Gerry Agnes, President and CEO of Elevations Credit Union, has been named to serve on the Board of Directors of the Credit Union Association of Colorado (CUAC).

In one of his first major assignments on the Board, Mr. Agnes was appointed to the CEO Search Committee, which is charged with selecting a successor to former CUAC President/CEO John Dill, who has stepped down from the role. Pete Kirchhof, former Association Senior Vice President of Government Affairs, is the Interim President/CEO.

CUAC is a statewide trade association representing 110 Colorado Credit Unions and more than 1.5 million credit union members – one in three Colorado citizens. Each credit union, which operates under state or federal regulation, is a member-owned, not-for-profit institution that returns its proceeds to its members through smaller fees and lower interest rates. Based in Denver, the Credit Union Association of Colorado serves and supports credit unions and their members through legislative advocacy, media advocacy, education and training, and operational information.

Elevations, with assets over $950 million, is the largest credit union serving Boulder and Broomfield Counties, providing financial services and education to over 80,000 members.

Elevations operates eight branches serving Boulder, Broomfield, Westminster, Lafayette, Longmont and the surrounding areas. For more information, please visit
