Elevations celebrates new Loveland branch with Grand Opening Event

Loveland, CO — On Saturday, October 2nd,

Elevations Credit Union will celebrate the Grand Opening Event of the Loveland Longs Peak branch.

The event will take place from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Everyone is welcome, whether they are currently members of the credit union or not. Those who stop by the branch will have a chance to win one of 50 gift certificates to local merchants, each valued at $50.00. There will be a barbecue cookout, wealth management services representatives available, a mortgage representative and an insurance services representative on site, plus “Rags,” the credit union’s kids’ savings club mascot. The credit union’s Loveland Longs Peak branch is located at 2495 East 13th Street, located southeast of the intersection of Eisenhower Blvd. (Route 34) and Denver St., just east of the Wal-Mart Supercenter.

“The event offers a little bit of something for everyone,” said Connie St. John, Branch Manager. “We’re excited to be a part of the community and we’re looking forward to a fun-filled day!”

Elevations, with assets over $950 million, is the largest credit union serving Boulder and Broomfield Counties, providing financial services and education to over 84,000 members.

Elevations operates nine branches serving Boulder, Broomfield, Lafayette, Longmont, Loveland and the surrounding areas. For more information, please visit www.ElevationsCU.com.
